

Businesses in the Salfords and South Earlswood Area

5th March 2012 Mini Alert

I am writing to inform you that a business in the local area has fallen victim of telephone hacking. Someone has used the company's internal telephone extensions to make protracted internet based calls to premium rate and international telephone numbers through a website called www.cheapinternationalcalls.com

I would like to advise you to adjust passwords on a regular in attempt to deter criminals victimising your business.

Kind Regards

PCSO Natalie Greenwood 14683
